

Ben Woo Scholarship Grants

Year	Recipient	Study or Grant	Amount
2007	Joshua Birkebak	Grant to study the genus Lepiota	2,400.00
2008	Noel Machniki	Grant to research Fusarium and Chili Peppers in Bolivia	2,000.00
2010	Univ of WA	Mycoresearch Donation to the UW for Dr. Ammirati's lab fund and urban fungus project fund	2,000.00
2011	Josh Birkebak	Monograph of the Family Clavariaceae (Agaricales) in the Pacific Northwest	1,945.00
2011	Katherine Gilligan	Univ of WA – Ectomycorrhizal fungal species In Red Alder	1,475.31
2012	Aaron David	Univ of MN – Study of the Diversity and Distribution of Dune Grass fungal endophytes along the OR coast	2,000.00
2013	Heather Buzzard	Fungi for the People Cultivation Class to write curriculum For elementary school children	600.00
2014	Christian Schwarz	Fungus Federation of Santa Cruz – donation To UCSC Herbarium Sequencing project	2,000.00
2015	Josh Harrison	Study of endophytic fungi within Sequoia sempervirens (Coastal Redwoods) to determine if vertical stratification in the fungal community exists. Dept. of Biology - University of Nevada	2,445.00
2015	Korena Mafune	Research in identifying species of fungi in both adventitious roots collected from canopy soils and also from fungal species collected from forest floor root tips of old growth Big Leaf Maple (Acer macrophyllum) and Sitka Spruce (Picea sitchensis). University of Washington	1,903.00
2016	Jeff Stallman	Study of the Genus Lepiota in Hawaii University of Hawai'i at Hilo – Conservation Biology Dept.	2,000.00